

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The American Occupational Therapy Association has designated the week of April 17-23, 1983, to honor Registered Occupational Therapists and Certified Occupational Therapy Assistants throughout the United States; and,

WHEREAS, Those who serve in the profession of occupational therapy have demonstrated great patience, a strong belief in the individual and an innovative and creative capacity in the service of their clients; and,

WHEREAS, Through therapeutic and purposeful activities, these therapists help to bring about a higher quality of life for our children and senior citizens; for our physically, developmentally and mentally disabled; for burn victims, stroke patients, and others whose capacity to function in meeting the needs of their daily lives is in some way impaired; and,

WHEREAS, Occupational therapists work in our schools, rehabilitation centers, hospitals, nursing homes and in our communities; providing preventive, rehabilitative, and assistive services in helping to meet the psychological needs and the rehabilitation goals which can be realistically set for individuals in need of their services:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 17-23, 1983, as in South Dakota and call to the attention of all citizens the achievements and contributions of our occupational therapists so that we may honor them.
